Text in context Discuss different texts on a similar topic, identifying similarities and differences between the texts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>identifying examples and features of different kinds of spoken, non-verbal, written and visual communication from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and from several Asian cultures within Australia</li> <li>comparing two or more versions of the same topic by different authors or from different cultures, describing similarities and differences</li> </ul> Interpreting, analyzing, evaluating Read familiar and some unfamiliar texts with phrasing and fluency by combining contextual, semantic, grammatical and phonic knowledge using text processing strategies, for example monitoring meaning, predicting, rereading and self-correcting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>using prior and learned knowledge and vocabulary to make and confirm predictions when reading text</li> <li>using grammatical knowledge to predict likely sentence patterns when reading more complex narratives and informative texts</li> <li>using knowledge of sound–letter relationships and high frequency sight words when decoding text</li> <li>monitoring own reading and self-correcting when reading does not make sense, using illustrations, context, phonics, grammar knowledge and prior and learned topic knowledge</li> <li>using grammar and meaning to read aloud with fluency and intonation</li> </ul> Use comprehension strategies to build literal and inferred meaning and begin to analyse texts by drawing on growing knowledge of context, language and visual features and print and multimodal text structures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>making connections between the text and students’ own experiences and experiences with other texts, comparing authors’ differing point of view on a topic</li> <li>making connections between information in print and images</li> <li>building on and using prior knowledge and vocabulary</li> <li>making valid inferences using information in a text and students’ own prior knowledge</li> <li>predicting, asking and answering questions as they read, and summarising and reviewing meaning</li> </ul> Analyse how different texts use nouns to represent people, places, things and ideas in particular ways. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>discussing the different ways that nouns and noun groups are used in various types of texts, for example, general nouns (mammals) in information reports and specific nouns (the neighbour’s dog) in narratives.</li> </ul>	Creating text Create short imaginative, informative and persuasive texts using growing knowledge of text structures and language features for familiar and some less familiar audiences, selecting print and multimodal elements appropriate to the audience and purpose <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>learning how to plan spoken and written communications so that listeners and readers might follow the sequence of ideas or events.</li> <li>sequencing content according to the text structure</li> <li>using appropriate simple and compound sentences to express and combine ideas</li> <li>using vocabulary, including technical vocabulary, appropriate to text type and purpose.</li> </ul> Reread and edit text for spelling, sentence-boundary punctuation and text structure <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>reading their work and adding, deleting to changing words, prepositional phrases or sentences to improve meaning, for example replacing an everyday noun with a technical one in an informative text.</li> <li>checking spelling using a dictionary</li> <li>checking for inclusion of relevant punctuation including capital letters to signal names, as well as sentence beginnings, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks.</li> <li>making significant changes to their texts using a word processing program (for example add, delete or move sentences)</li> </ul> Write words and sentences legibly using upper and lower case letters that are applied with growing fluency using an appropriate pen/pencil grip and body position <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>using correct pencil grip and posture</li> <li>writing sentences legibly and fluently using unjoined print script of consistent size</li> </ul> Constructs text featuring print, visual and audio elements using software, including word processing programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>experimenting with and combining elements of software to create texts</li> </ul>	Interacting with others Listen for specific purposes and information, including instructions, and extend students’ own and others’ ideas in discussion through initiating topics, making positive statements , and voicing disagreement in an appropriate manner <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>using spoken language for problem solving, and exploring ideas and concepts</li> <li>listening for specific information and providing two or more key facts from an informative text spoken or read aloud</li> <li>listening to, remembering and responding to detailed instructions</li> </ul> Rehearse and deliver short presentations on familiar and new topics, speaking clearly and varying tone, volume and pace appropriately, and using supportive props <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>adjusting presentation for different audiences</li> <li>preparing and giving oral presentations, including reports of group discussions, using more formal speech and specific vocabulary about content area topics</li> <li>listening and responding to presentations, including those using multimedia, on familiar and learning topics, recording key information, and connecting new and existing knowledge about a topic</li> </ul>

Achievement Standard
Reading and Viewing By the end of Level 2, Students understand how similar texts share characteristics by identifying text structures and language features used to describe characters, settings and events or communicate factual information. They recognise all Standard Australian English phonemes, and most letter sound matches. They read texts that contain varied sentence structures, some unfamiliar vocabulary, a significant number of high frequency sight words and images that provide additional information. They monitor meaning and self-correct using context, prior knowledge, punctuation, language and phonic knowledge. They identify literal and implied meaning, main ideas and supporting detail. Students make connections between texts by comparing content.	Writing By the end of Level 2, Students create texts that show how images support the meaning of the text. They accurately spell words with regular spelling patterns and can write words with less common long vowels, trigraphs and silent letters. They use some punctuation accurately, and can write words and sentences legibly using unjoined upper- and lower-case letters.	Speaking and Listening By the end of Level 2, Students listen for particular purposes. They listen for and manipulate sound combinations and rhythmic sound patterns. When discussing their ideas and experiences, students use everyday language features and topic-specific vocabulary. They explain their preferences for aspects of texts using other texts as comparisons. They create texts that show how images support the meaning of the text. Students create texts, drawing on their own experiences, their imagination and information they have learned. Students use a variety of strategies to engage in group and class discussions and make presentations.
